

The Muses Hand

Lose yourself in five wondrous worlds brought to you by the Genesee Writers Guild. Each story presents a compelling vision of a different reality, from the almost familiar to the fantastic. Can one woman's courage overcome the legacy of generations of war and save her from a fate worse than death? Open your heart to Kerah in Windbaiter. What do a long-buried Civil War hero, a half-dozen inexplicably resurrected residents of Mount Hope Cemetery, and a man who wants to steal the last remaining return ticket from the grave have in common? As fate would have it, Private Patricia O'Rourke holds the high ground in The Risen. A celebrated musician's mysterious memory loss holds far-reaching implications for all of mankind in Raise a Song, Sound the Timbrel. If you'd kill for a good night's sleep, what would you do for eternal rest? A troubled woman searches for the answer while Becalmed on the River Styx. Humanity's bid for membership in the Galactic League is threatened by a string of suspicious accidents. Can our near-do-well heroes solve the mystery in time to rescue themselves from bankruptcy and Earth from permanent second-class citizenship? The Games Afoot!
