

Kiss of the Jaguar

Dario Caetano is a top Bogota lawyer fighting for social justice. He puts a premium on integrity, and sometimes that means he has to make certain compromises to protect a worthy cause or loved ones. When his dairy-farmer son Rafa is kidnapped, Dario discovers his carefully compartmentalized life is a house of cards. His ties to a fledgling terrorist group come to light, and now he's a prime suspect. Suddenly he risks losing all he holds dear. Held captive with a jaguar shaman, the hostage faces unexpected challenges. As events escalate, the kidnappers, their hostage and all who are affected by the kidnapping are forced to redefine how they give meaning to their life and to what lengths they're willing to go for it. Idealism, shame, obsession and self-doubt weave an intricate plot from the highlands of Bogota to the Caribbean coast and Amazon jungle. Who will pay a heavy price, and who will find enlightenment?
