

Mumbly Peg: Harry Landers, PI Series, Episode 2

When a young woman becomes the recipient of a lurid photo of herself with an older married man, she enlists the help of private investigator Harry Landers. Once the intern to a more established PI, Harry uses the skills Stretch taught him as he delves into the case and discovers that while problem solving and gut instinct are important attributes to have in the profession, sometimes the greatest asset a gumshoe can have is luck.
