

The Investigators: Killings for our time...

In present day London, boy genius and amateur detective Lucas Voigt befriends time travellers (or are they out of work actors?) Sherlock Holmes and Wyatt Earp and, after various adventures, sets out to track down a new and terrible serial killer whom the police seem unable to arrest. But is the killer a copycat killer, as the police suspect? Or is he, as Lucas believes, history's most notorious murderer? About 62000 words.
