

Torn Together

Life, love, and an unforgettable trip to India. Find out why readers call Torn Together an emotional roller coaster ride. Why does growing up have to be so difficult? Daly English is having a harder time than most. Her future as an artist is unclear, her relationship with her mother is damaged beyond repair, and--to top it all off--her long-term boyfriend is having an affair. When Daly befriends two unlikely individuals--first a pregnant teen, and then a light-hearted charmer from India--her cynicism begins to melt away. Meghann provides insight into Dalys life and an endless stream of good advice, comforting Daly despite her own less fortunate position. Kashi proves he cares too much about Daly to let her fade into the background of her own life. After a series of false starts, their quirky romance carries them to India, where Daly must win the approval of Kashis family in order to seal their forever. Will these friendships be enough to turn around Dalys directionless life? Will she move past the hurt and learn to trust again? Or will her mother, once again, ruin everything shes worked so hard to achieve? Torn Together, Emlyn Chands first sojourn into Literary New Adult Fiction, weaves a tale of friendship, dreams, and a lingering loss, while illustrating how our similarities often drive us apart. Evolved Publishing and multi award-winning author Emlyn Chand present Torn Together, a story about one womans search for love and acceptance, her troubled relationship with her mother, and her desperate desire to find the happiness for which shes always yearned.

LITERARY NEW ADULT. Bonus Content: Illustrations from Dalys personal sketch journal at the beginning of each chapter. A 20-question discussion guide to share with your book club. A heart-wrenching interview with the author in which she discusses how her own life and failed marriages served as the inspiration
