

Kendrens Prize

Kendren, a displaced lord, has just been given the most valuable commodity on this primitive planet -- Princess Calisa. She's a Faery in heat. Now he has to decide if he should keep the ethereal creature or sell her. Calisa is the eldest of King Francisco Oriks three daughters. Their mother died when they were small girls. Whispers of what her mother was have followed her since she was old enough to understand what they meant. Faery. Calisa doubts the truth in the rumors. Faeries aren't real. Her doubts end on the morning of her nineteenth birthday when her body suddenly burns with unquenchable need. Her overpowering lust changes her from demure princess to sex-crazed woman in seconds. Kendren has the one thing that can end the moaning, writhing minx's torment -- a cock. Will he give into temptation and put his very soul at risk by making love to a Faery, or will he sell the beauty to the highest bidder? As he gazes down at the lovely naked girl tied to his bed, his renowned iron will is tested more fiercely than he's ever experienced before. Will her large, pleading lavender eyes prove more tempting than enormous profit?
