

The Best-Loved Short Stories Of Jesse Stuart

The thirty-four stories in this collection, selected from Stuarts 460 published stories, reveal the variety and range of his fictional world. Some reflect the wonder of growing up, while others portray the comedy and tragedy in the lives of the strong, rough-hewn characters of his world. Running through most of them like a golden thread is Stuarts celebration of the strength and affirmative view of life of his people, and their love for the land. Stuarts own love for the land and its rhythms of life also comes through clearly.
