But their marriage is far from perfect. The tragedy of their daughters death has pushed them apart, to the point that they can barely communicate. Yet Joana and Goncalo are still married. Then the Voice appears, a voice that only Goncalo seems to hear. Convinced their dead daughter is reaching out to him from beyond, Goncalo becomes obsessed with decoding the Voices message. An obsession that forces both of them to confront the real forces that keep them together, and what they truly felt about each other and their daughter. And the truth behind the Voice will push them towards a fate they never wanted, and could never have guessed. Joana and Goncalo are married. For now.
