Terri Delaney is on her way to becoming a major player in the television news industry. She has an awesome ability to impact people in a positive way. But a blackmailer is intent upon destroying her. While Jack Collier is a private investigator, very good at his work, he really wants nothing more to do with the business. His efforts seem to be creating more downer time than gains. But when he meets Terri, he comes to believe he can make a positive difference in her life. While Jack continues to claim differently, he knows he may not make it happen. He and Terri face far greater power than any blackmailer can claim. A classy who-done-it with plenty of fast-paced action. And, for a change, a classy private investigator with a positive upbeat view of life. You'll love it.
