

Deep Navigation, Second Edition

Deep Navigation is the 2010 Boskone Book by Boskones Guest of Honor Alastair Reynolds. It contains a broad spectrum of his work, from his first published story, Nunivak Snowflakes, through The Receivers and Monkey Suit, both published within the last year, plus an introduction by his friend, and former Boskone Guest, Stephen Baxter. It is well-known that the scope of Dr. Reynolds stories is vast; his Revelation Space stories alone attest to that. This collection shows his impressive range, from the claustrophobic Antarctic station, Byrd Land Six, to the brane-spanning Tiger, Burning, to the millennia-long quest of Fury. His viewpoints are as varied as his constant production of big, new ideas. A lone artist calmly painting the universe. A planetary ecological struggle reduced to a game. A fleeing assassin drawn into an alien rescue between the stars. The full-color dust jacket is by John Picacio, the Boskone 47 Official Artist. This is not a limited edition.
