

Snowy (John Matthews Crime Series)

This book is the second in a short series of crime novels by John Matthews. The story is about a group of prisoners working on a road gang repairing holes with ballast when fate lends a hand and the warder is taken ill and dies. This sets a dilemma for the prisoners in whether to make a break for freedom and with two hampers packed with food and four hours head start they make a dash for it and stumble upon a deserted cottage - or so they think - but how wrong could they be? This is just the beginning of another nightmare....
