

Death Comes to London (Kurland St. Mary Mystery Book 2)

A season in London promises a welcome change of pace for two friends from the village of Kurland St. Mary until murder makes a debut. . . . With the reluctant blessings of their father, the rector of Kurland St. Mary, Lucy Harrington and her sister Anna leave home for a social season in London. At the same time, Lucys special friend Major Robert Kurland is summoned to the city to accept a baronetcy for his wartime heroism. Amidst the dizzying whirl of balls and formal dinners, the focus shifts from mixing and matchmaking to murder when the dowager Countess of Broughton, the mother of an old army friend of Robert, drops dead. When its revealed shes been poisoned, Roberts former betrothed, Miss Chingford, is accused, and she in turn points a finger at Anna. To protect her sister, Lucy enlists Roberts aid in drawing out the true culprit. But with suspects ranging from resentful rivals and embittered family members to the toast of the ton, it will take all their sleuthing skills to unmask the poisoner before more trouble is stirred up. . . . Praise for Death Comes to the Village[A] delightful debut. . . . Readers will hope death returns soon to Kurland St. Mary. Publishers Weekly (starred review) Lloyd combines a satisfying mystery with plenty of wit and character development. Booklist
