

A Duel of Eagles

Previously published as 1914 : Everybodys Looking for Sunday World war 1 : When war breaks out, schoolboy Ozzy Bancroft-Gracey is amongst the first to join up. He is drafted onto the Western Front and experiences the full horror of trench warfare, from Gallipoli to Somme, but his dreams are of joining the Royal Flying Corps. At 18 he finally gains his Kings Commission and is posted to Oxford for flying training and on to Northern France where he distinguishes himself as a fighter pilot, winning the Military Cross. But his glory is to be short lived, for the Western Front sees the ultimate pilot and a foe greater than Ozzy could ever imagine...the Red Baron and his flying circus. This is the eagerly-awaited, third book in Les Lunts highly acclaimed Aviation Trilogy and is a prequel to the best-selling Hurricanes Tale and When they were Eagles.
