BRISBANE, STATE CAPITAL OF AUSTRALIAS QUEENSLAND This historic yet dynamic city is a compact treat! Gardens, a clocktower, a casino, shopping, and a fun South Bank are all right here. Are you ready??? Brisbane, capital of Queensland, nestles on the river between the popular Australian tourist destinations of the Gold Coast and the Sunshine Coast. Its very compact and easy to explore on foot. Visit the beautiful Roma Street Parklands, and then walk into the city. Take an elevator inside the historic Town Hall Clocktower where you can stop inside the clock itself. Shop in Queen St. Mall, and drop by the old Treasury building, which is a casino now. Then cross the river to South Bank where you can swim, eat, be entertained, and walk under the Bougainvillea Arbour. To finish up, head back to Roma Street past the Law Courts. Ready? Here you go on your tour!

AUTHOR - Angela Cockburn is a busy professional actor/writer who loves to travel. She has visited twenty-six countries at last count, but there may be one or two she's forgotten! English by birth, Angela now lives in Australia and loves its proximity to the exotic East. This lady just won't stop exploring, so more tours are coming our way.
