Gavin Jenkins, a brilliant young doctor with roots in poor, rural Kentucky, saves Baltimore heiress Cleo Talbot from unnecessary surgery after an incorrect diagnosis. When the couple's passionate attraction leads to marriage, Cleo's elite social and political connections propel Gavin, a charismatic Dr. FeelGood, to the heights of international celebrity. His name appears in the secret black books of the world's most powerful men and women. His patient list extends from the bedrooms and war rooms of heads of state to the dressing rooms of world-famous artists and the ornate palaces of oil-rich Arab kingdoms. When the richest man in the world, Nicky Kiskalesi, sets his eyes on billions of dollars of Egyptian oil, he must first topple a power-mad dictator. He seeks Gavin's help, a fateful decision that leads from the waterfront slums of Izmir, Turkey, to secret KGB plots and beheadings in the scarlet-draped bedrooms of gilded mansions; from secluded private islands in the Mediterranean to the corrupt thrones of the Levant and the inner sanctums of the White House itself.... while the future of vast oilfields--and Gavin's own life--are at stake. HOOKED, a political-medical thriller, is set in New York and Washington, a remote fishing village on the Turkish Riviera, Sweden, Vienna, Cairo and aboard Lydia, the world's most beautiful yacht. All the sure elements of a big seller written by pros who know how to tell a story. Slick and sexy with easily recognizable people or composites. --Publishers Weekly
