

The Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow

Now, this is a subject on which I flatter myself I really am au fait. The gentleman who, when I was young, bathed me at wisdoms font for nine guineas a termno extrasused to say he never knew a boy who could do less work in more time; and I remember my poor grandmother once incidentally observing, in the course of an instruction upon the use of the Prayer-book, that it was highly improbable that I should ever do much that I ought not to do, but that she felt convinced beyond a doubt that I should leave undone pretty well everything that I ought to do.
