

Face the Sun

Face the Sun is a tale of Nathan Pomeroy, a shy and awkward man seen but not seen, invisible and ignored by those who should pay the most attention. Nathan is common, self sufficient and very dangerous. Nathan Pomeroy was born without applause into a world of sadism and brutality. Escape was attempted only once resulting in harsh punishments because of the one that got away. Nathan pays a heavy price for not running fast enough and evil bore a hole in the bottom of Nathans mind and sucked out his soul. Nathan is an accomplished predator playing deadly games with law enforcement and leads investigators through a maze of despair and desperation strewn with blood and horror. Local Sheriff Buddy Chandler and Assistant District Attorney, Roberta Austin, join Nathan on a journey through the cesspool of his mind and twisted appetites. Nathan giggles and skips away from the tenacious but outmatched small town sheriff taking him on a sadistic race from small town Georgia to South Florida. Evil has many faces, many forms, lives everywhere and lives nowhere. Nathan listens to the screams in his head, dancing with the devil to a rhythm of death and drags the souls of sinners from the dark recesses of reality. Memories of past indulgence entertain and torture Nathan with sweet vivid recall of each cut, taste and smell of his victims. He dreams of her and his appetite grows strong to share his special talent once again. Roberta prosecutes Nathan with zeal beyond mere moral outrage as the bond of perversion grows strong in the hearts of the not so innocent. The closer she gets to knowing who and what Nathan is, the closer she gets to understanding an elusive memory. Nathans special kind of insanity sneaks up on those unknowing and Roberta soon realizes she is not just prosecuting a killer she is in a battle to maintain her own sanity as well as her identity. Robert Davis was born and raised in Miami, Florida where he spent the majority of his life and has two wonderful adult children. He received a masters degree in psychology and enjoyed a productive career as a homicide detective with extensive experience investigating violent crimes and deviant behavior. His experience, education and twisted personality were honed on the streets of South Florida. He now resides in North Georgia with his wife and co-author along with their loyal bulldog. Tammy Merritt-Davis was born and raised in Miller County Georgia. A desire to be in Law Enforcement moved her to South Florida where she was a Police Officer for 10 years prior to embarking on a career in Healthcare management. Currently she is completing her education in Business Administration and attempts to provide a balance to her husband, co-authors insanity.
