

They were never an obvious group of friends. Julian came from the most staid of county families. Jakes passage from unassuming suburbia to the dreaming spires of Oxford happened only by chance - and at great cost. And Adrienne, daughter of one of New Yorks wealthiest and most glamorous families, grew up more used to appearances in Vogue than to Oxfords cold and dusty lecture halls. When the three of them arrive at university, it is Julians sister, Maggie, who brings them together. It is her idea to teach Jakes childhood tormentor a lesson. But what begins as a game has life-changing consequences for them all...
