

Music of the Night: Mystery and Suspense

On a winter night, 26-year old Nicholas Clarke, a violinist with the Opera House is killed after his last performance. On the same night, ballet dancer Jennifer Lynn disappears at intermission during a concert and her nude body is later found in a ventilation shaft in the Opera House building. The case is assigned to two young detectives, Ray Jones and Lisa Andrews, and its up to them to sift through the conflicting information, uncover the secrets, and see through the lies of everyone at the Opera House.
