

England to Delhi: A Narrative of Indian Travel (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from England to Delhi: A Narrative of Indian Travel The journey described in the following pages was undertaken from a desire to form some personal acquaintance with a country chiefly known to me through the medium of a close mercantile connection. In a word, business, not bookmaking, was its primary object. No one, however, who visits our Eastern empire can fail to be forcibly impressed with the novelty of its aspect, and with the strong contrast which it presents to the ordinary routine of European life.
