

Number Thirteen, Manor Close (The Asharton Manor Mysteries Book 4)

Please note - this is a novella-length piece of fiction (about 20 thousand words) It is 2014. Beatrice and Mike Dunhill are finally moving into a house of their own, Number Thirteen, Manor Close. Part of the brand new Asharton Estate, Number Thirteen is built on the remains of the original Asharton Manor which was destroyed in a fire in 1973. Still struggling a little from the recent death of her mother, Beatrice is happy to finally have a home of her own until she begins to experience some strange happenings that, try as she might, she can't explain away. Her husband Mike seems unconvinced and only her next door neighbour Mia seems to understand Beatrice's growing fear of her home. What is the mysterious shadow up on the landing? Why do things keep moving around in the house and who is whispering to her late at night? Uncertain of her own judgement and fearful that she is slipping back into the mental ill health that plagued her before, Beatrice must confront what lies beneath the beautiful surface of the Asharton Estate. But can she do so without losing her mind or her life? Number Thirteen, Manor Close is the final novella in the Asharton Manor Mysteries series: a four part series of novellas spanning the twentieth century. Each standalone story uses Asharton Manor as the backdrop to a devious and twisting crime mystery, from bestselling crime writer Celina Grace, author of The Kate Redman Mysteries. Praise for Celina Grace from Amazon and Goodreads reviewers: One of the best I have read this year. I read about a fourth of the book early in the day, then at bedtime, I thought I would read a bit more before sleep. I finished the book at 5:20 AM. Just could not put it down. a gripping detective story but the main character engages you, and as well as wanting to know how the mystery turns out you want to learn more about her too. amazing book, read it front to back in one visit, couldn't help myself the most enjoyable Kindle book I have so far read since the low cost electronic revolution which has been sweeping my reading habits for the last couple of years! Thoroughly recommended. This was my introduction to the author, and I'm so glad I discovered the book. Well-written and a real page turner. I was awake till the early hours to finish it !! I really enjoyed it and the characters in it so I'm pleased I also have the sequel downloaded to read at some point. I know it should be great. Attention to detail and great character building coupled with a mystery that keeps you guessing are all the ingredients that make me keep reading till the early hours of the morning. Celina Grace has done it again, she compels you from page to page and chapter to chapter, a great, riveting read... I found it difficult to put down and was completely distracted from all the other things I should have been doing with my time. This is a great series that I couldn't put down and grabbed the next book right away at 1 a.m. to keep reading.
