

Stinky and the Sorrowful Psalmist (Stinky Stories Book 40)

:The Who Died in This Room House Tour Leaves Visitors as Cold as the Bodies
Stinky is hired to assess the viability of the Claudia Abbess Mull House. The building, like the fame of the Victorian poet that lived there, has seen better days. When Stinky and Eddie sign up for a tour, the veteran volunteer is mostly interested in describing how and where each family member died. Lawyers who deal with estates believe, Where theres a will, theres a way. Stinky slogs through the authors maudlin verse until he finds a way to burnish Mrs. Mulls reputation so it shines in the twenty-first century. About Stinky Stories Stinky and Eddie appear in almost eighty comic short stories in the #1 bestselling Amazon series. Stinky is chatty and insouciant, and while Eddie may not say as much, when something needs to be done, hes already doing it. Theyre as close as Brooklyn and Queens and as unlikely to separate. Stinky doesnt go looking for trouble, but he cant hide from it. Its part of the best looking man on the planet package. Clients might ask him to judge a prep school essay contest, select the most inappropriate entry at an art festival or assess a potential heir by remote control; and hes always willing to stick his oar in, even if the river is rocky and the canoe leaks. Stinky and Eddie would like to live quietly, but their lives are always colorful. Stinky and Eddie are supported by a collection of outrageous guest stars and an ever expanding cast of relatives. The stories are witty and literate and readers dont have to leave their brains in a jar to enjoy them. Whether its a flat-out farce, bedroom comedy, sexy romp, sly satire or screwball family intrigue, youre never far from a happy ending in every Stinky story. Isnt that what we really need these days?
