

Protector: Prequel to the Extinction Series

Alexandra Kingston is the preordained leader of Blades. Flynn Severins is the lowly operative assigned the position of her Protector. Passion flares between them, but they can't be together. He doesn't have the wealth and high position to claim her as his own. And there's the slight problem of Alex being engaged to another man, chosen for her by Fate. When Alex is attacked with a biological weapon, she doesn't suspect her Protector of betraying her. But when Flynn high-tails it out of the city with more money in his bank account than an operative makes in a lifetime, she has more questions than answers. Too bad Flynn won't give her the answers that threaten to destroy her family. He'd rather be branded a traitor, sticking to his vow of protecting his troublesome charge at all costs. As secrets are revealed, and bloodlines are questioned, Flynn and Alex must make a decision. Defy Fate, and fight for their love. Or accept their destiny.
