

Under the Grassy Knoll: a JFK novella

Don Petterman sells DVDs of the Zapruder film in Dealey Plaza. He tries to earn a living but has a broken life, an ex-wife, and a mostly empty existence. Hed be resigned to his life if only he could make a small impact on history, find some scrap of new information about Kennedys death--something to show for all his years of research. When his iPad gets knocked into the drain, he discovers more than he ever imagined and is forced to make a fateful decision. A thrilling tale of a man looking for validation in life and possibly finding it in a moving finale. As close as you can get to a perfect short story. --Robert Marsh A novella by Richard Gleaves, author of the Jason Crane Series: Rise Headless and Ride, Bridge of Bones, and General of the Dead.
