

Repression

John Matthews has forgotten his childhood. Unfortunately for John, someone from his childhood has not forgotten him. Time to pay the check, Johnny! A dead man whispers and sends John into a waking nightmare where everything he believes is shown to be a lie. As John tries to hold onto his sanity, he will be forced to remember the forgotten times of his youth, watch the people he loves brutally murdered by something that cannot exist, and come face to face with a power that is beyond comprehension. With the awesome power of The Grand Canyon and the hopelessness of Hollywood as the backdrop, John Matthews must discover what he has buried within the depths of his mind while trying to find the one person that can help him combat the evil that has taken over his life.
