

Clubbed to Death

Robert Amiss is working undercover as a waiter at a gentlemen's club at the request of his friend DS Pooley. The club secretary has allegedly jumped to his death from the club's gallery, but Pooley believes he was murdered. Amiss finds himself in a bizarre caricature of a club run by - and for - debauched geriatrics, with skeletons in every cupboard. Why are there so few members? And did they murder the reforming secretary?
