

Christmas Bells: Book Three in The Seasons of Cherryvale (Volume 3)

When A Christmas Eve blizzard strands dozens of travelers like a bad episode of Survivor:Cherryvale, the townies rally to offer them food and a place to rest. Grace, the towns fussy organizer, sets aside anniversary plans to serve them while Maggie, her loud-mouthed, sometimes crass best friend, leaves her animal rescue farm to help out. Shelby, the sage but no nonsense diner owner, scurries around town cooking enough turkeys to feed the multitudes. Six-year-old Cassie learns how to overcome stage fright, and then shares her wisdom in a hankie-in-your-hand moment that reminds us of the power of prayer. A biker gang motors into town and makes an unexpected contribution, and a young soldier fleeing mistakes shes made finds forgiveness and new hope. A gospel choir stirs the soul, and a miracle of the bells inspires reflection on what makes everyone precious, and how we can embrace others even under the most difficult of circumstances. If you enjoy a light-hearted, inspirational story about colorful, multi-dimensional folk who are imperfect, yet accept each other despite their differences...while holding each other accountable...youll understand why so many fans of The Seasons of Cherryvale say Cherryvale is the kind of town I want to move to, and quickly become an honorary Valer yourself. Welcome to Cherryvale, where neighbors care, gardeners share, and God allows do-overs.
