

The Vermont Myth (CH) (Charnwood Library)

Palma Harcour belongs, with Helen MacInnes and Evelyn Anthony, to a recognisable category of female spy-story writers. - DAILY TELEGRAPH. A year after the death of the government minister, Sir Simon Vermont, his son Peter is summoned to his fathers lawyers. As requested by Sir Simon shortly before his death, Peter is given a key to a safe deposit box, the contents of which are an old watch and an unread typescript - Sir Simons story of his life. The powerful and respected Simon Vermont reveals himself to have been an impostor, a cheat and a murderer. Peter is able to reassure himself that he is the only one who knows the terrible truth about his father - until a strange phone call leads him to suspect otherwise...
