

ROMANCE: The Baronets Bride (Romance, Contemporary Romance, Billionaire Romance, The Billionaires Short Stories)

Excerpt: I expected much; but my memory good one. It stamped in my heart forever. Great men like Sir Jasper Kingsland, grandees of the land, forget the little things. I owe you a long debt, Sir Jasper, and I will pay to the uttermost farthing, hallelujah God! His black eyes blazed, his low voice rose, his arm uplifted fiercely from an instant and dire menace. Then, quick lightning flashes, I was transformed. The eyes were bent upon the carpet, the arms folded, the voice sunk, soft and servile. Forgive me! he murmured. In my gratitude I forget myself. But you have my motive in coming here--the desire to repay you; to thank you for the future of your son; to thank you for the evils that may threaten his youth and manhood, and to place you in your guard against them. Forwarned, fore-armed, you know. Do not doubt my power. In far-off Oriental lands, under the golden stars of Syria, I learned the lore of the wise men of the East.
