In social media, nothing is what it seems. STATUS by Jordan Belcher. Tyesha Fenty is a beautiful 22-year-old mother of one very precocious little girl and an unashamed internet addict. Between taking care of her daughter and posting updates about her life via the Web, Tyesha stresses over love and family. The father of her child is a spiritually devout drug dealer named Rodrick Al-Bashir who has a thing for other women. And her mother, Velma Fenty, is a widowed hoarder on the verge of losing her house. Stalking is the least of Tyesha's worries, until one of her social media friends starts showing up at her gym, at her job, and at her home. Soon tragedy strikes, and when detectives catch her stalker and just as quickly release him, Tyesha is forced to take matters into her own hands. Be careful what you post, he's watching.
