

Proserpine & Midas

Mary Shelley was a prominent English writer in the early 19th century. Shelley also promoted the work of her husband Percy Bysshe Shelley, who was one of the greatest poets in literature. Shelley is now best known for her gothic fiction, especially the classic novel Frankenstein. Proserpine & Midas are two plays written by Shelley. Proserpine is based off Ovid's story of the abduction of Proserpine by Pluto. In the play Midas, poets compete with each other in a contest.
