

The Crazy Old Ladys Revenge: Beacon Hill Chronicles 2

Novella (39k words) Psychological horror / suspense - Beacon Hill Chronicles: Volume 2 Growing up in her grandparents apartment in Bostons Theater District, Vivienne Lang spent much of her childhood in the Beacon Hill townhouse of her best friend, Mattie Thorndike. Then Viviennes life was uprooted and, by the time she returned to Boston, she was deeply changed. Now, she spends her time taking care of her grandfather and studying martial arts - a lonely and reclusive woman - until she reads a newspaper article about a body buried in the garden of Matties home. She and Mattie reconnect but within days of their reunion the realtor showing the townhouse is found in the servants stairwell with a broken neck. Then the old housekeeper, Nell, is found floating, face down, in the ocean. As more bodies turn up, Vivienne becomes deeply involved in inexplicable circumstances including meeting a handsome, sexy ex-cop named Joe Quinn, and a strange, yarn shop-owner who calls herself Madame Defarge. And she suspects that someone is stalking Mattie. (Volume 1 is The Crazy Old Lady in the Attic. Volume 3, The Crazy Old Lady Unleashed, is now available. Also available is The Crazy Old Lady Omnibus, all three volumes in one.) ~NOW AVAILABLE: THE CRAZY OLD LADYS SECRET, Beacon Hill Chronicles: Volume 4~
