

The Magnificent Wilf

When Earth is contacted by galactic civilization, our heroic couplet - diplomat Tom Parent, and his linguist wife, Lucy - prove themselves to be just the pair to tour the galaxy representing Earth and learning the whys and wherefores of galactic civilization. There's only one tiny catch to this grand tour - on Tom and Lucys performance hinges our acceptance by the rest of the galaxy as a civilized world rather than as ward of some more advanced species. (You don't want Earth to become a Galactic ward.).
