

Sydney Opera House and Botanic Gardens Self-Guided Walking Tour (Sydney Self-Guided Audio Tours and Commentaries)

Take a walking tour around the Opera House and along Sydneys beautiful foreshore into the Royal Botanic Gardens. This Taleist self-guided audio walk begins at Circular Quay, the landing place of the First Fleet in 1788 then winds around the Opera House into the Royal Botanic Gardens. Finish this self-guided walking tour with the panoramic harbour view from Mrs Macquaries Chair in the Gardens. As you walk, hear from your guide the true tales of those first European settlers and their struggles. Take in the history of the Opera House and admire Australias oldest research institution, the Royal Botanic Gardens. A self-guided audio walk told in our trademark light-hearted but informative style. Distance: Just over two kilometres with no stairs or hills. Time: The walk will take you about 45 minutes. You will need to allow 30 minutes to return to where you started or 15 minutes to finish in Woolloomooloo. Includes: A map and MP3 files suitable to be played on iPods, iPhones and any other digital audio player.
