

Dead Girl (Rise of the Dead Book 2)

High school is bad enough. Try getting through it as a zombie! Meet Audrey Scott. She has it all. She's the most popular girl at Lincoln High and dates Tommy Barker, the cutest boy in the senior class. She has a credit card with no limit, is head cheerleader and was probably going to be homecoming queen again this year until she was bitten by a Deader. Worst part of it? He ruined her best jeans. But that's just the tip of the putrid iceberg. Now, Audrey is beginning to fester. She doesn't smell very fresh. Her hair comes out, along with pieces of scalp. Her friends no longer want to hang out with her. Tommy has moved on to a new girl. And poor Audrey is suddenly wearing Depends and hanging with her lame younger sister, Cindy. The world isn't like it was. Disease is in the air and people have become infected. The dead are no longer buried because they won't stay put in their graves. They are sent out to big, green pastures with electric fences, where they remain until they rot away to nothing. **Incidentally, the misspellings in this blog-style short story are intentional. Although I have no personal experience with the living dead, I have heard they are notoriously poor spellers.
