

The Backward Time Traveler

Keera Miles, a psychic, has a most unusual quest. To travel back 200 years and rescue a sacred stone from a Sioux tribe before its lost forever. She teams up with an annoying, cynical reporter Zach Bones. Not that he believes her story, but, because hes hiding from a loan shark, because he needs a good story and because Keera is so gorgeous, he agrees to help her. The ingenious, twisty plot follows the pair as they adapt to Indian bodies, and become trapped in a ferocious Crow raid. Their plan to snatch the stone from the wily and ruthless Red Leaf grows increasingly desperate. When they flee back to the present, they find they have swapped one nightmare for a worse one.
