He is disgruntled, but doing as hes asked until he can get out of there and return home to his wife and kids. But not everything is business as usual on this New Years Day as Kevin discovers an old evil has returned to pick up where it left off and the only thing it wants is to help him be a better person, no matter how much blood it has to spill in the process. Kevin is forced to take a hard look at his life and decide if this is it for him, if this job, this home, this family, is what really fulfills him, or if theres more he could be doing.
