

Travels with a Donkey in the Cevennes (Illustrated)

Travels with a Donkey in the Cevennes (1879) is one of Robert Louis Stevensons earliest published works and is considered a pioneering classic of outdoor literature. Stevenson was in his late 20s and still dependent on his parents for support. Travels was both meant to be with the woman he loved, and provide the adventure he craved, having been sickly much of his life. Travels recounts Stevensons 12-day, 120-mile solo hiking journey through the sparsely populated and impoverished areas of the Cevennes mountains in south-central France in 1878. The character of Modestine, a stubborn, manipulative donkey he could never quite get the better of, is memorable. It is one of the earliest accounts which presented hiking and camping outdoors as a recreational activity. It also tells of commissioning one of the first sleeping bags, large and heavy enough to require a donkey to carry.
