

When Death Does Not Die

Frank Thompson works as a mid-level supervisor in an eatery located in a downtown high rise office building. William, Leah, Bob and Rose are young and affluent professionals who work in the same building. They play a prank on Frank that goes terribly wrong. Frank finds himself in a life or death struggle to survive in an environment that he is ill-equipped for. The young professionals must return to the scene of the crime to finish what they started in the midst of what has become a police investigation. The true character of all involved soon becomes blatantly transparent.
